The agenda was taken for discussion item by item.

Item No. 1: Feedback on Departments and Committee/Associations on the basis of meetings conducted by IQAC and Autonomy Monitoring Committee.

Dr. D.S. Narkhede, Coordinator, Autonomy Monitoring Committee has given brief overview of the criterion wise meetings held in the month of June 2023 and July 2023. The meetings were held with the members of each criterion. He further informed that the discussions held during the meetings and feedback received on each metric is recorded. He requested Ho. Principal Prof. S.K. Patil to give his remark based on the meetings held. Prof. S.K. Patil has given information on the admissions for the academic year 2023-2024.

The Principal has given the following guidelines for its execution:-

- Preparation of Teaching Plan and its adherence
- Information on website must be update by each department and committees/association
- Proposals by teachers for research funding from NGO, RUSA and college
- Monitoring of the activities
- Research paper publication by the teachers as per the target
- Authoring of books by the teachers
- Placement data to be collected
- Financial contribution from Alumni
- Financial assistance for teachers for attending seminars and workshops
- Timely completion of the activities

Resolution: It was resolved that to monitor all the activities for its timely completion.

Item No. 2: Guidelines to Departments and Committees/Associations for preparation of NAAC.

Dr. B.D. Aghav, IQAC coordinator has requested Hon. Secretary Dr. S.T. Gadade to give the guidelines for preparation of NAAC. Dr. S.T. Gadade mentioned that the NAAC Accreditation for fourth cycle is approaching i.e. in academic year 2024-25 and the change in methodology of Assessment. The benchmarking for the autonomous college were discussed. He mentioned that the management is committed for the upgradation of the institute. The performance of self-financing courses was appreciated and performing excellently. Based on presentations during the meetings held, it was observed that some departments namely English, Economics, Chemistry and Commerce need to work hard. Dr. S.T. Gadade also highlighted the NEP-2020 implementation from 2023-24 and efforts take for its implementation were appreciated. He advised to plan the activities properly and appealed for more emphasis on research activities, teaching-learning and co-curricular activities. Dr. S.T. Gadade expected good accreditation grade for this cycle.

Resolution: It was decided to work hard for accreditation of the college for fourth cycle and obtain good grade.

Item No. 3: Any other subject with the permission of the Chair
